
DAVID F. GREENAWALT

Founder and President of the
Franklin Worsted Company

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12.—David F. Greenawalt, founder and president of Franklin Worsted Company, died Thursday at his home in Huntingdon Valley after an illness of four months.

Mr. Greenawalt, who was 65 years old, was a member of St. Paul's Lodge No. 481, F. and A. M.; a member of the Shrine and the Abington Chapter of the Masonic Order. He was secretary of the Lower Moreland township school board and treasurer of the Montgomery County School Directors Association. Survivors are his widow, Amelia C. Greenawalt; three sons, Roland F., Lloyd N. and Wayne W. Greenawalt, and a daughter, Thelma A. Greenawalt.

The New York Times

Published: November 13, 1938

Copyright © The New York Times