⁶ September 20th 1856: These are simultaneous actions that appear to have occurred on September 20th 1856. The second (#2 below) of these two actions was filed 1st, but I suspect that Leah Wrightstone (#1 below) was permitted to take what she wanted of John's estate before a final apprising of property for auctioning.

1. This is an Inventory and Appraisement of the $300 worth of goods and chattels allowed Leah Wrightstone. "$300 Inventory for Leah Wrightstone widow of John Wrightstone late of Conewago Tp. deceased... Filed October 11th 1856 & approved..." "Inventory and appraisement of property selected by Leah Wrightstone widow of John Wrightstone late of Conewago Township York County deceased under law allowing $300 worth of Property to widow of decedent..."

There is an extensive list of property that Leah took; all house furniture; 3 spinning wheels and reels; Shotgun; pistol; mantle clock and watch; stove and piping; all farm implements; tools; live stock-3 hogs, cow, calf, and horse; harrow and double trees; horse gear and 2 saddles; chains, 2 log chains and 2 hatters; a "lot" of straw; wagon and beads; 2 tons more or less of Hay; bushels of corn, rye, wheat, corn fodder, and potatoes. The total came out to $299.99.

"... We the undersigned appraisers selected to appraise $300 ~ worth of property for Leah Wrightstone widow of John Wrightstone late of Conewago Township York County deceased, having first been duly qualified according to law, appraised the property mentioned in the foregoing Inventory selected elected to be taken by said widow on account of her claim under $300 ~ and we certify that same is just true and correct and that she selected to take and claimed the balance of her $300 worth out of the real estate, that upon examination we find the same cannot be divided on land to the value of the balance of her $300 set apart without prejudice to or spoiling the whole. We therefore recommend the same be paid to her when the land is sold witnessed our hands this 21st day of September AD 1856..." Frederick Shetter - Peter Day - John Coble - John (??)
