

Johannes Einzigⁱ (1830-1915)

Johannes George Einzigⁱⁱ was born March 23rd 1830¹ to David Einzig² and Barbara Rupp³ in the Vollmaringen Parish within the Horb District,ⁱⁱⁱ of Schwarzwald Kreis,^{iv} Württemberg^v Germany.^{vi} Johannes went by the name John.

- John's death certificate did not indicate his parent's names, and it is possible that he was not the child of David and Barbara,⁴ or the brother of David Einsig (1829-1908),⁵ but a possibly a cousin.
- John was also recorded being born in the village of Ahldorf,^{vii} which is also located in the Schwarzwald Kreis of Württemberg Germany.

Johannes Einzig was about 12 years old when he arrived at the port of Baltimore with Barbara Rupp and four other Einsig children on December 22nd 1843.^{viii} Their place of origin was identified as Ruesten,^{ix} and their destination was identified as Pennsylvania.⁶ On September 30th 1851,^x John took the oath of alliance to America, and was naturalized in York County Pennsylvania.⁷

ⁱ Other spelling of Einzig includes Einsig, Aensick, Ensick, Eimsich, and Eisig.

ⁱⁱ The name of John George Einzig is part of the Einsig family oral history, which was provided by Roy Einsig of Warrington Township York County Pennsylvania. Roy is the great-great-great grandson of John Einzig.

ⁱⁱⁱ Vollmaringen is a 4th order Ecclesiastical Roman Catholic Division (Parish) in the 3rd Order Administrative District of Horb, within the state Württemberg Germany. Horb lies on the eastern margin of the northern part of the Black Forest just above the confluence of the river Grabenbach with the Neckar.

^{iv} Schwarzwald means Black Forest and Kreis means District, today it is known as Schwarzwald-Baar-Kreis Germany

^v Württemberg was a state (1806-1918) in Germany, located in the area that is now Baden-Württemberg.

^{vi} The Einsig family oral history indicated John's middle name George and birth place as Vollmaringen Horb, Wurttemberg, Germany. The information was provided by Roy Einsig of Warrington Township York County Pennsylvania. Roy is the great-great-great grandson of John Einzig.

^{vii} Vollmaringen is about 8 miles (13.7km) north of Ahldorf. Ahldorf is a village or small town situated in present day Freudenstadt district, within the Black Forest region of Baden-Württemberg Germany.

^{viii} According to the 1910 census record, John immigrated in 1833, which is incorrect.

^{ix} The word, Ruesten may be a miss spelling of Reusten, which is next to present day Reusten Rathaus located in the Tübingen region of Baden-Württemberg Germany, which is within the 19th century administrative district and parish of Schwarzwald Kreis (Black Forest District) of Germany. John's birth place, Vollmaringen, is about 17 miles east of Reusten.

^x Many people identified his naturalization occurred in 1850, but the papers are clear that the date is 1851. John's name was spelled as Aensick, and John made his mark to the name. We don't know if John could write in his native German language, but we know he could not write in the English language.

- Barbara Rupp, was 34 years old; born about 1809. Other Einsig siblings with Barbara and John where: David Einsig was 13 years old (b.1830), Maria Einsig was 8 years old (b.1835), Albert Einsig was 2 years old (b.1841), and Mathias Einsig was 1 ½ years old (b.1842).
- There is a possibility that John (1830-1915) is the son of the Einsig branch who emigrated from the same German region to Lehigh County, via York County Pennsylvania. This Einsig branch includes two sons of Martin Einzig, who was born May 24th 1804 to Johann Georg Enizig ⁸ and Brigitha Dusslin in Baisingen Germany. ⁹
- Martin was 26 years old when he married 25 year old Catharina Findling on September 1st 1820, in a Katholisch ceremony in the village of Baisingen, within the Schwarzwald Kreis of Württemberg Germany. Catharine was born on November 16th 1805 to Johann Georg Findling and Agatha Steiner in Kahldorf. ¹⁰
- Martin and Catherine's 1st born son was Johann Georg Einzig ¹¹ who was born October 9th 1830 and christened October 10th 1830, as a Katholisch in the village of Baisingen within the Schwarzwald Kreis of Württemberg Germany. ¹²

John married Theresa Berger on June 2nd 1850 ¹³ in the St. Patrick's Church in York County Pennsylvania. Theresa must have been previously married to a Findling. ^{xi} Teresa was born Theresa Berger on March 8th 1834 to Conrad Berger and Grace Wolf in Germany. ¹⁴ In the 1900 census record Theresa indicated she immigrated in 1841. ¹⁵

John was a basket maker, and lived his entire life in the Freystown ^{xii} area of Spring Garden Township in York County Pennsylvania. He stood 5' 7" tall and had dark hair and dark eyes when he enlisted in York on September 9th 1861 during the Civil War. ¹⁶

John was a private in Company "C" of the 87th Pennsylvania Infantry. ^{xiii} As the regiment was ordered into the field, John deserted June 22nd 1862. He may have been held in confinement in Harrisburg until March 27th 1863. ^{xiv} John mustered out of the 87th on June 22nd 1863. ¹⁷

^{xi} The name Teresa Findley was identified being the mother of three children with John Einsig. Also the name, Teresa Findley, is affiliated as the German wife of Anton Einsig (1804-1859)

^{xii} Freystown was a flourishing community with a rich history just east of York city, bounded approximately by Broad Street, King Street, Harrison Street and Philadelphia Street. Early settlement centered on what is now East Market Street around Ridge Avenue and Diehl's Mill Road (Sherman Street). Freystown - from colonial settlement to Gypsies, by June Lloyd, York County heritage and Trust, 250 East Market Street, York Pennsylvania, March 15th 2013.

Freystown became part of York city around 1900 (sources vary), but not without reluctance.

In 1870 the family lived in Freystown Spring Garden Township, just outside the city limits of York Pennsylvania. There is a child, named Amanda (b.1867) ^{xvi} living with them, but she was not living with the family in 1880.

In 1900 Theresa indicated she had nine children, and nine were still living. Besides census records, John’s 1898 Civil War Pension record indicated he had nine children living who were all of age. ²³ These children identified John Einsig as their father, but their mother’s last name were different. Three children identified their mother as Teresaa Findley, and the seven identified her as Teresa Berger.

In an 1858 Saint Mary’s Parish census record indicated John Einzig and Teresa Findling had three children; Mary, Antonia, and Catherine. ²⁴

- Mary's sister Annie married Peter Myers, and when their son Adam Myers died in 1939, he mentioned an Aunt Mary Kleiman. ³¹ This may be an error, and may actually refer to Mary Kleiman, a daughter of Elenora and Curtis Myers. Elenora is a sister of Mary and Annie Einzig.

Lester was 26 years old, living at 803 East King Street in York, when on Friday November 11th 1949 he was drinking at the Clay tavern in the Strinestown area of Manchester. While at the tavern Lester met 43 year old Clarence J. Kauffman of 857 South Dallas Street in Baltimore. Clarence was the driver and owner of the tractor-trailer, who was traveling to York.

Clarence offered Lester a ride to York, and about 7:30, while traveling on the Manchester-York Haven road, Lester fell from the cab of a tractor trailer near the north end of the bridge across Conewago creek, near Conewago Heights.

Bayshore arrived and called for an ambulance. Lester was taken to the York Hospital where he was treated for abrasions of face, arms and chest.
