William Henry Taylor (1864)

William Henry Taylor was born April 25th 1864 ¹⁹ to Henry F. Taylor and Anna Y. Keeney in Shrewsbury, Shrewsbury Township, York County Pennsylvania.

William was educated in York County. At fourteen years old he left home and learned the trade of miller, at which he worked four years. He afterwards worked as a molder in York, Pennsylvania, for three years. He then opened a bakery in York, and for three years did an extensive business.

William married Miss Laura Emma Slusser on October 23rd 1887. ²⁰ -²¹ They applied for their marriage license on October 10th 1887. Laura was born June 25th 1865 to Henry and Ada Slusser in Glen Rock, York County.

By 1889 William and Laura, went to Harrisburg, where William engaged in the insurance business. In 1894 he became one of the organizers of the Capital City Flint Company. He was elected the first secretary, treasurer, and general manager of the company, and was continued in these offices until November 30th 1895, since which time he has been secretary of the company. He is also district agent for "The Manufacturers' Industrial League," of Carlisle, Pa. Mr. Taylor is a Republican. He is a member of the Junior Order United American Mechanics. ²²

Also, in 1894 William and his family, along with Laura's parents, Henry and Ada Slusser lived at 812 East Street in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. It was there on September 4th 1894, Laura's father, Henry, died. ²³

About 1898 the family moved to Reading, Berks County, Pennsylvania. By 1900 William and Laura were living at 147 West Oley Street in Reading, where William was a real estate agent. By 1910 Laura indicated that one child died, and she was a widower.

William died between 1900 and 1908, but we could not locate any specifics for his death. He was alive in 1900, but was deceased by 1908 when his son, Paul, died. It is assumed he was buried at the same cemetery as his wife at the Laureldale Cemetery. FAG#:263541554 ^{vi}

- However, in Henry F. Taylor's 1912 obituary, William Henry Taylor was identified as a surviving child living in Reading. ²⁴
