Introduction

This family begins with the marriage between Emma Rachel Smith and Henry Ward Bigger.

- Emma Rachel Smith was born August 29th 1870 to William Smith and Sarah Jane Long in Pine Top, Columbia County, Pennsylvania.
- The family oral history, Judy Ross; Emma was pregnant when she married Henry, and that Leonard's middle name, Kelley, was given to Leonard to honor his father's name.

In 1900 Henry and Emma Bigger lived near to Emma's mother, Sarah Smith and William Kelley, in Jordon Township, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania.

Then in 1910 Henry and Emma were living in the same home of 72-year-old William Kelley and 64-year-old Sarah J. Smith. Sarah indicated she had two children, but only one was still living. I believe this is Emma's mother.

- Also, Henry and Emma identified their children, which included a 20-year-old Lizzie Kelley, was identified as a daughter. Emma also indicated she was married to Henry for three years, 1897.
- And, in the 1900 census record, Emma indicated she had five children, but only four were still living. We account for these children.
  - Lizzie Kelley was born in 1890
  - Unknown Kelley child was born, and died prior to 1900
  - Unknown Kelley child was born, and was living in 1900.
  - Leonard Kelly (1897-1973). He married Marie DeJoice.
  - Wilbur Norman Bigger was born January 29th 1899.

All this supports the family oral history; Emma was previously married to Mr. Kelly, and that she and Mr. Kelly had four children, including Leonard.

Let's find out. We start with 1900 72-year-old William Kelley.

Indicators

In June 1890 during the Federal Special Schedule-Surviving Soldiers, Sailors, and Marines, and Widows census, William Kelley was living in Jordan Township, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania.

William enlisted into the Civil War as a private in Company G 1st Pennsylvania Volunteer Artillery, on August 24th 1861. He served for 3 years, and was discharged August 24th 1864. In the census William indicated that he had rheumatism. <sup>1</sup>

Then in 1900 61-year-old William Kelley owned his home in Jordan Township, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. He was born January 1838 in Pennsylvania, as was his father and mother. William's marital status was single, and he worked as a stone mason.

Living with him was 54-year-old widower, Sarah J. Smith, who was born in January 1846. Also living with William and Sarah was a 10-year-old niece, Sarah E. Kelley, who was born March 1890.

By 1910 72-year-old William Kelley and 64-year-old Sarah J. Smith were still living in William's home in Jordan Township. Sarah indicated she had two children, but only one was still living.

- Living with them is Sarah's daughter Emma Bigger, and her husband Henry. And a 20-year-old daughter, Lizzie Kelly.
- Note: This makes it clear that Emma Smith had a daughter born in 1890 to a Mr. Kelly. It also points to William Kelly as a brother-in-law to Sarah J. Smith. Key elements:
  - In federal census records, relationships are related to, the head of the family.
  - 1900 William is the head of the family, and his 10-year-old niece, Sarah E. Kelley lives with him. Sarah Elizabeth (Lizzie) Kelley was born in Danville, Montour County, Pennsylvania.
  - In 1910 William is the head of the family, and Sarah Smith is a border. In the same house Henry Bigger is also the head of his family. Lizzie Kelly is identified under Henry's family as a daughter.
  - William Kelley's marital status in 1900 and 1910 is Single

William Kelley and Elizabeth Kelly are keys in identifying the 1st husband of Emma Smith, and the father of Leonard Kelly Bigger. Danville, Montour County, Pennsylvania is also key.
