

Family Oral History: Judy Ross; One was about 2 guys who made friends while in the navy together during WW2. They remained friends for many many years and visited each other from time to time. On one such visit the friend noticed a family reunion invitation on the coffee table. When he saw the names listed, he realized the 2 men were cousins.

Mauk Brothers: ¹

- i. Joseph Mauk
- ii. Jacob Mauk

Joseph Mauk (1822-1891)

Joseph Mauk was born March 23rd 1822 in Jefferson County, Pennsylvania. ²

Joseph was among the early settlers in Canoe Township, coming there when quite a young man. ³ Having taken up his residence on a farm when it was yet an original forest. ⁴

Joseph married Mary Ann Hoover. ⁵ Mary Ann Hoover was born March 7th 1824 in Indiana County, Pennsylvania. ⁶

As a wife, she was truly a helpmeet. She felt; her responsibility as a mother; each child was dedicated to God, and grace sought to train it for the Master. Nor did she seek in vain; she saw the germ of the fruit which has already developed in the conversion of some, and appearing in others. The Church has lost a zealous worker, the ministry a steadfast friend, for she always welcomed the itinerant to her home and. hospitality. ⁷

Joseph took up arms in defense of the Union in the late civil war, and was an honored, esteemed and loved brother, comrade and citizen. ⁸ He mustered into Civil War service on August 26th 1864 as Private with Company C of the 206th Pennsylvania Volunteers Infantry. He mustered out June 26th 1865, when his company were disbanded at Richmond, Virginia. ⁹

Mary embraced religion at a camp meeting near Georgeville, some thirty-three years. She lived a devoted and exemplary religious life, as a member of the M. E. Church. During all these years her place was never vacant in the house of God, without a good excuse. ¹⁰

Joseph was one of the founders of Zion Methodist Episcopal Church near his residence, of which he was a member, and a local preacher about fifteen years. ¹¹ He was one of Canoe Township's foremost citizens and a conscientious Christian having been one of the leading members of the Richmond Methodist Episcopal Church for over 40 years. ¹²

In 1875 Joseph and Mary lived near Marchand, Indiana County, Pennsylvania. They were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, who taught their children to love the Savior. ¹³

The foundation of Mary's faith was laid in secret prayer, and with accumulated years, and Care of a large family, these seasons became more earnest and protracted, from which she went forth to the faithful discharge of her duty to her family, the Church, and the world. ¹⁴

The last few weeks of Mary's life were painful in the extreme, yet in all her suffering, patience possessed her soul, and she would often repeat those lines, Yet, oh Lord, I wait thy coming, for thy time and ways are best." Her last words were of glory and immortality. The years spent in the service of God are the index of her eternal destiny. ¹⁵

Mary Ann Hoover was 51 years old when she died October 25th 1875 near Marchand, Indiana County, Pennsylvania. ¹⁶ She was laid to rest at the Zion Methodist Episcopal Cemetery in Rochester Mills, Indiana County, Pennsylvania. FAG#: 6173343 ⁱ

After Mary died, Joseph married a second time. Joseph's third wife survives him. ¹⁷

Joseph was 69 years old when he died suddenly at his home near Rochester Mills ¹⁸ in Canoe Township Monday morning, June 8th 1891, of heart disease; ¹⁹ neuralgia of the heart. ²⁰

The funeral and interment were delayed until Friday morning, June 12th, that two sons from North Dakota, might reach home to view the remains before burial. Joseph's body was laid to rest in a beautiful flower ornamented and cloth lined grave by the hands and ceremony of comrades G. A. R., in the Zion cemetery near the old homestead, after which the long concourse of vehicles bearing several hundred friends and acquaintances proceed to the M. E. Church at Rochester's Mills, which was also very beautifully draped and decorated with flowers. The service was conducted by the regular pastor, Rev. A. H. Acken, assisted by Revs. Harshberger and Ellenberger. ^{21_22_23} FAG#: 61728721 ⁱⁱ
